VISITING IN CHICAGO: Mrs. Martha Blue and her two-month-old daughter, Sherry Elaine, are visiting in Chicago. They are house guests of Mrs. Blue's aunt, Miss Leva Conner. Mrs. Blue, honor graduate of CAHS, received a two-year scholarship to Talladega college, and is a 1945 graduate of Butler university. She has studied on her master's degree at the Indiana University School of Social Work, where she expects to resume her studies this fall.

INSPIRING SERMON AND SONG SERVICES PLANNED FOR EASTER

"Christ Is Risen," the inspiring cry that has been echoed down the modern ages, will again rise aloft throughout Christendom Sunday.

Easter comes again to remind a wayward mankind of the transcendent triumph of light over darkness, hope over despair, strength over weakness, right over wrong, and life over death.

The sinister forces of evil have steadily retreated since the ringing challenge of 1900 years ago—O Death, where is thy sting, O Grave, where is thy victory.

Christ's birth, observed at Christmas, symbolizes the mortality of Man. His resurrection, observed at Easter, symbolizes the immortality of Man.

It is the intimate communion with the Risen Christ that thousands of local citizens will be seeking in the solemn services scheduled in city churches Sunday. Impressive services have been carefully planned by churches of every denomination and by non-denominational groups.

Eastside Baptist Churches and their ministers hold pre-Resurrection services at the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, 25th and Oxford streets, Good Friday from noon through 3 p. m. Reverends George Baltimore and Lavi Venerable are co-conductors.

Easter will be auspiciously inaugurated by the 25th annual Easter Sunrise Services on Monument Circle by a mixed group of songsters and worshippers of all races and creeds. Following are special services given in addition to the regular church services:

Shortly before sunrise, at 3 a. m., Elder Manie L. Tatum will conduct an Easter Service at the Ethel Redemptive Christian Spiritualist Church, 1320 N. Senate avenue.

Rev. S. D. Hardrick, the pastor, will conduct sunrise services at the St. Paul A. M. E. Church at 6 a. m., with other special services following.

WELFARE DEPT. OF COUNTY HIT BY BIAS CHARGE

By Staff Correspondent

If the Marion County Public Welfare department has failed miserably in performing the functions to which it has been entrusted, it stands accused of wilfully and stubbornly penalizing colored dependents through a studied policy of rank discrimination.

Its practices were so brazenly defiant and contemptuous of the basic principles of democracy that the colored member of the five-member board recently resigned in disgust.

Mrs. E. A. Ward, 2116 Boulevard pl., prominent community leader and staunch Republican said she resigned from the Republican-dominated county welfare board only after she became convinced her efforts to secure justice for the innocent, helpless colored children placed under the department's care not only proved futile but were rebuffed and resented.

Marion county supports by public taxes the Children until foster homes can be found for them. Maintenance and operation of the home snare a sizeable chunk of the department's budget.

Care has been taken to make and keep it "exclusive." Arthur E. Wooten, welfare department director, frankly admitted to a daily newspaper reporter that Negro children are barred from the home by an "unwritten ruling" of long standing.

When, through no fault of its own, a colored child is taken into

WILBERFORCE U. LOSES RATING

BY THE RULE OF THE BOARD CITED IN NCA REPORT

CHICAGO (ANP)—Charging too much domination by bishops in the affairs of Wilberforce University, the Commission on Colleges and Universities of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools voted unanimously last week to drop the 91-year-old institution from its accredited list. Wilberforce was placed in the lowest tenth of the colleges on its list with a score of only 461 points out of a possible 1,000. The NCA is the recognized accrediting agency for most schools in the Mid-West.

Major Financing by State. Out of a board of 22 members in the college of liberal arts, nine are A. M. E. bishops, and 11 others are A. M. E. ministers. A lawyer and a housewife constitute the remaining two. The A. M. E. Church, however, provides only an eighth of the school's budget. The state provides the rest.

ANNUAL OLDER BOYS CONFAB HELD AT YMCA

With the common theme "Youth Charts the Future," the 21st annual Mid-West Older Boys' Conference (H-Y) and the 24th spring conference of Girl Reserves and Y-Teens were held last week-end at the Senate Ave. YMCA and the Phyllis Wheatley YMCA.

Julius Rhodes of this city was installed as president of the 1945 of the Older Boys' Conference, which includes boys from Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois. Other officers installed were Richard Evans, Muncie, vice-president; John Frye, Port Wayne, secretary, and William Mills, Indianapolis, assistant secretary.

Opening session Friday evening was addressed by Rev. Clinton L. Marsh of Witherspoon Presbyterian Church. After the session the boys joined with the Y-Teens in a party in the YMCA gymnasium.

Saturday's activities began with a Leaders' Breakfast in the YMCA luncheon room. Rev. Walter Bowen of New York City addressed the morning session on "After School, What?" Rev. Charles Watkins of Louisville Court spoke on the subject: "Religion as a Step Along the Upper Road."

In the afternoon a joint discussion was held at the YWCA, with Rev. Ralph O. Dell, Memorial Pres.

Mayor May Rectify "Neglect" in Sewer Commission Plans

Rectification of an "oversight," to appoint a Negro commissioner for the $27,000,000 sewer-improvement program, was promised Wednesday by Mayor Robert H. Tyndall.

The Mayor said he had simply neglected to include a Negro when he named the commission recently.

A delegation consisting of Councilman Lucian B. Meriwether, Sterling James, president of the Federation of Associated Clubs; Mrs. Myrtle Roper, and Mrs. Cary D. Jacobs brought the matter to "His Honor's" attention. Mrs. Roper represented the Public Affairs Committee of the YWCA, and Mrs. Jacobs the City Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, the NAACP and the Alpha Kappa Alpha Society.

The Mayor told the group to name the commissioner and he would appoint him, it was reported.

Buddy Young Joins Pro Football Ranks

CHICAGO (Sp.)—Claude (Buddy) Young, former University of Illinois halfback and track star, indicated Tuesday he had signed to play professional football with the New York Yankees.

Dan Topping of the Yankees denied the club had already signed the famous athlete, but Young insisted he had turned professional and had signed with the club which held draft rights on him—The Yankees.

It is believed that the speedy ball-carrier would be traded to the Chicago Rockets, another member of the All-America Football Conference, for whom he might prove a strong hometown gate attraction. Young is a native of Chicago and a graduate of Wendell Phillips High School where he attracted widespread attention as a track and football star.

Plans Mapped for Next School Board Election

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

An invitation to all citizens to join with the Citizens School Committee in selecting and supporting school board candidates, was issued Monday as the committee held its first meeting of 1947 at the Hotel Lincoln.

Leo M. Rappaport, temporary chairman of the group, told The Recorder that all citizens interested in good school government are welcome to join the committee. Anyone desirous of joining should contact the secretary who will be elected at the next meeting, he said. In the meantime, Rappaport continued, citizens should contact him or any member of the executive committee.

Current objective of the Citizens School Committee is the election of a nonpartisan state school commissioners next fall. The committee has named the successful candidates in every election since 1929.

The "hottest" issue in the school board race this year is expected to be the racial discrimination and "downright" "fascist policy" which has been charged to the present board members.

In the effort to retain the city's Jimcrow school system without modification, the commissioners have clashed time and again with liberal and democracy-minded groups of citizens. Unequal educational facilities provided for Negro children, in violation of Indiana state law, have been repeatedly demonstrated by delegations who visited the board meetings. Transportation of Negro pupils across the city, passing numerous "lily-white" schools on the way, has been a particular sore point.

A shockingly inadequate program of vocational training for Negro veterans was protested over a period of months by the Veterans Civil Rights Committee, headed by Jay T. Smith, and other groups.

In the face of all these complaints the present school board has refused to modify its policy, and has held high the standard of segregation through thick and thin. The climax of the struggle came when the board intervened in the recent session of the state legislature, to help bring about the defeat of House Bill 466. The measure, authored by Representative Thomas L. Fortune and Wilbur H. Grant, would have abolished Jimcrow schools throughout the state.

Statement Resented Superintendent Virgil J. Stinebaugh appeared before a hearing of the House Education Committee and read a board statement

FORM LEAGUE; ARRAY FORCES TO SAVE HOMES

The struggle between the Redevelopment Commission and West Side property-owners entered a new stage last week as the citizens banded together to form a protective organization, while the commission laid plans to begin "nibbling" at the "blighted area."

The Home Owners' League, formed during the recent court battle, was set up as a permanent organization at a meeting held March 28 at the Sisters of Charity Hall, W. 13th and N. West sts.

William King, Jr., president of the organization, said its purpose is to protect the welfare and interests of the home-owners of the district. "This organization must continue the fight," he declared. "We shall not give up just because

REV. MCBRIDE'S MOTHER DIES IN MISS.; AGE 102

LEXINGTON, Miss. (Sp.)—One hundred and two years of useful robust living was solemnized in a deeply reverent funeral services for Mrs. Peggy Harper held at the Green Baur Baptist church March 20.

Born a slave in Holmes county, Mississippi, March 2, 1845, Mrs. Harper spent her entire life in the vicinity of her birthplace, ranging an amazingly large family and for the most part, earning much of her own livelihood.

She is the mother of the Rev. Henry McBride, highly regarded minister living in Indianapolis, until recently pastor of the Mt. Pisgah Baptist church, Kokomo, Ind. Long a resident of Indiana, he has been prominent and active for many years in that state's religious circles and organizations of the Baptist denomination.

FRANK REYNOLDS LOSES LIFE IN SHIP DISASTER

A postwar tragedy of the sea has taken the life of an Indianapolis youth who saw four years of war service during which he traveled seven times around the world. Frank E. Reynolds Jr., son of Mrs. Lorraine Carter, 2636 Boulevard pl., lost his life when the Merchant Marine ship, St. Lawrence, in which he was a crew member, struck a mine in the Adriatic Sea off the coast of Yugoslavia March 25, according to a message from Belgrade.

Young Reynolds was a graduate of Attucks high school and though qualified as an engineer, was serving as a stoker on the ill-fated vessel as it travelled waters known to have been heavily mined during the recent war. His body was not recovered.

News of Reynolds' fate was relayed to the owners of the steamer in New York by a spokesman for the UNRRA in Belgrade. The mother

A graduate of Wilberforce University with a degree in social administration, she did special work at West Virginia State College, following which she served in Dayton, Ohio, with the division of public assistance and the Dayton YWCA. Called to Huntington, W. Va., she served there as teacher of social studies in the high school and social worker in the Huntington pre-school department.

Since coming to this city four years ago, Mrs. Sharpe has been connected as a volunteer worker with the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA and Flanner House.

Stark to Act on Civil Rights Law Offenses

Some of the complaints now filed against local eating-places for violation of the Indiana Civil Rights Law will be prosecuted, although the Marion County Prosecutor's office still hopes that a "deluge" of such cases will not result.

This was the statement of Prosecutor Judson L. Stark to representatives of the Indianapolis Civil Rights Committee last week, committee members informed The Recorder.

Court action will be brought on affidavits filed by John Richardson, 342 Cora st., and Mrs. Lizzie Mae Wimsatt, 215 Bright street, against the Patterson Rexall Pharmacy, 2602 N. Capitol ave. Stark was quoted as assuring committee members. The affidavits charge that Richardson and Mrs. Wimsatt were refused service at the lunch-counter of the pharmacy on two occasions. From 60 to 80 per cent of the store's business is with Negro patrons, it is said.

B. M. Kunkel, co-owner of the pharmacy, allegedly said that he could not serve Negroes for fear of losing the trade of nurses from nearby St. Vincent's Hospital.

GI Student Case Stark also reportedly pledged action on the case of J. C. Cradle war veteran from Philadelphia against the Hook Drug Store at

FORMER SUITOR STABS TO DEATH YOUNG WOMAN

By OPAL L. TANDY

While a grief-laden family went forward with funeral arrangements for attractive Mrs. Hilda Flagg, police continued their search for Q. Z. Penix, her rejected suitor, who allegedly murdered her during a maniacal frenzy Monday night.

Services for the 27-year-old woman were scheduled for Saturday at 1 p. m., at the King & King Funeral home.

Witnesses said Mrs. Flagg died under repeated stabbings in a northside gutter as her mother, Mrs. Lillian Anderson, age 51, also knife-wounded by Penix, pleaded with him not to kill her daughter. As Mrs. Anderson crawled toward her home, 2844 Northwestern ave., Penix fled into the night, it was reported.

Mother Tells Story Detective Sgt. Casper Kleifgen and Charles Cavender, of the homicide bureau, were unable to question Mrs. Anderson until Wednesday. She gave them a detailed account of the events leading up to her daughter's death. They had already taken a statement from Mrs. Flagg's sister, Mrs. Celesta Drake, age 32, who also witnessed the attack.

Police who arrived at the scene had to fight their way through a large crowd in order to reach the body of Mrs. Flagg. Mrs. Anderson, hysterical and suffering from half-dozen wounds, was rushed to City hospital. She is recovering at home.

Police found a hat, a partly-filled whiskey bottle, and a shoe with the heel torn off at the scene. Sobbing, Mrs. Drake told detectives at police headquarters that she fled in terror to summon aid

WOMAN'S BOY FRIEND LEAVES WITH $3,400

Detectives George Sneed and Plez Jones, of the burglary detail, are seeking Willie B. Williams, Jr., age 21, 309 West Vermont street, on a charge of vagrancy as a suspect in the larceny of over $3,000 early this week.

Mrs. Ora (Jackie) Jones, age 41, 317 North Senate avenue, reported the loss personally at police headquarters early Sunday morning. Mrs. Jones said that Williams and she went to a dance Sunday night and early Monday morning they stopped by a restaurant in the 300 block Vermont street to have breakfast.

About three o'clock, she said, Williams left under the pretext that he was going to get some whiskey but had not returned several hours later. Williams had the key to her room and to the safe she kept the money in, Mrs. Jones said, and when she went home she could not get in. When her landlady arrived Monday evening with another set of keys, Mrs. Jones stated, she found that Williams had taken $3,470 and had left her $1,000 to "get a new start with." Last seen, she said, Williams was wearing a light cream colored top when last seen, she said, Williams was wearing a light cream colored top coat, grey suit, and a tan hat.

'Low Down' Makes Big News in Recorder

"Low Down" is a little female dog. This is not news in a world where the "milk of human kindness" flows very slowly over a course obstructed by trappings nearly marking its extinction. It is not news in the community, but it is news in the precincts of the Recorder, which has stood by to proclaim news to the community and the world for more than a half century.

"Low Down" is news in the Recorder offices, because members of the organization are mindful of the observation of Alexander Dumas, Pere, in which he noted that "dogs are candidates for humanity." Again she has motivated a trend of philosophical thinking by members of the staff. Elsewhere it has been said, "beware of people dogs do not like" and again, "beware of people who do not like dogs."

"Low Down" is in the news because she became the mother of seven baby dogs on April 1, and since the time she had endeared herself to some members of the Recorder staff. The seven baby dogs, three males and four females weighed an average of four ounces at birth. "Low Down" has the characteristics of a Collie, grayish white in color with distinct tan shades over her body. The top of her back is less than "two hands," 8 inches, high. From the nose tip to buttocks she is less than twenty inches long. She came to the Recorder out of no place, but she has made herself a home and friends in the hearts of most of the members of the staff.

The biggest issue in the Recorder offices today is not, whether "Russia has the atom bomb," or whether "Dewey, Taft, Wallace and Pepper will run for President," who will be the next Mayor of Indianapolis, or comparable speculations—but "who will take the babies of 'Low Down' and give all of them good homes."

We lost the decision in Superior Court.
Plans were made for a campaign to raise $4,000, with each member to pledge $25. Every member present at the meeting pledged financial support to the project.
"These Are Our Homes," Mrs. Virgil Cunningham, chairman of the finance committee, declared that the group will fight to the last court. "These are our homes," she declared, "and we stand ready to do whatever is necessary to bring them to any standard of the commission."

A city-wide series of mass meetings will be held, it was announced, and the general public will be asked to support the crusade. A number of churches already have agreed to lend moral and financial support.

"The public can rest assured," King declared, "that this organization will function to their approval, and that all funds will be used for the purposes for which they are raised. A complete accounting will be given to the public through the columns of The Indianapolis Recorder, from time to time. We will function as an efficient, business organization."

Charles Sansberry, business man, is treasurer of the group. Mrs. Ima Ganaway is secretary.

First Land Chosen
The Redevelopment Commission, meanwhile, designated plans for acquiring the first land in the "blighted area." Most of the "first take" will be in the section bounded by Brooks and Collins sts., Fall Creek, Torbett st. and 16th st., a commission spokesman said.

Most of the section is vacant land, but a few homes may be moved, the spokesman continued. Residents will not be compelled to move until they can find new living-quarters, he promised.

dall, of this city.

father survivors include: the father, Frank B. Reynolds Sr., Berke-

Beckwith Club
Hears Candidate
For Council Talk

Following noon meetings with interested citizens this week who formed the frame work of the Beckwith For Councilmen Club it was reported to a Recorder representative that an intensive effort will be made to capture the third district council nomination for Frank R. Beckwith.

He assured his workers that the next city administration in its dealings with the question of equitable compensation for the persons whose homes will be raised in the so-called blighted area will determine whether or not the letter and spirit of the Constitution will be fulfilled.

He characterized as deplorable the fact that the taxicab license problem is a more violent expression of unwarranted discrimination than any similar in large cities.

Campaigns carrying these and other vital issues will be carried into every nook and corner of the city according to the plans.

for her mother and sister, as Pe-nlex attacked the two women under the glare of a street lamp.

Pled with Assailant

Mrs. Drake said that she was ill, and that her mother had just come home from work and was in her room, when she heard her sister scream. She shouted to her mother that Penlex had Mrs. Flagg.
The mother ran into the street where the two were struggling.
Mrs. Drake said, pleading with the assailant not to "kill her baby."

By the time she could get to a position to see, Mrs. Drake said, Penlex was astride her sister, repeatedly stabbing her. Then he left Mrs. Flagg and started after the mother, she continued. Mrs.
Drake fled back to the house shouting for help.

By this time another roomer at the house was attracted by the women's screams and came to the door. He saw Mrs. Anderson crawling across the lawn of the house next door.

Penlex had kept company with Mrs. Flagg for several years after being discharged from the Army.
Mrs. Drake said. Some time ago, she continued, Mrs. Flagg broke off the relations. On the night of the killing, she said, Penlex phoned the home and asked for Mrs.
Flagg.

"When I told him that my sister had gone to the drugstore, he answered that he was coming out.
I said, 'You know that you are not allowed out here,' and he said he was just kidding. Then he said it was funny that every time he called, my sister was gone."

"Then later I saw a man standing in the dark near a business place. As the night watchman drove into the yard of the building, I could see the man better by the headlights. I know now that it was Q. Z."

Tells of Threat
"Have you ever heard 'Q. Z.' threats your sister before?" police asked.

"Yes, I have," Mrs. Drake answered. "About two weeks ago, in a tavern on the Avenue. At this time he told me that he would kill Hilda if he caught her on the Avenue, because she was no good."

Penlex is married and the father of a daughter, but he and his wife are estranged. She told police that she had not seen him for some time. His parents, who are divorced, also said they had not seen him. Police were unable to learn the nature of Penlex's Army discharge.

Chief of Detectives Jesse Mc-Murtry said: "This crime is worse than brutal. We are making a diligent effort to catch the man. A fellow like that might do anything.
We want him badly, and I am sure that my ace detectives will run him down sooner or later. If I hear where he is, I will go and arrest him myself."

WELFARE DEPT.

custody by a policeman or policewoman, it is dropped into other first niches that can be found regardless of suitability.

Days or weeks may elapse before a more or less permanent home may be found for the helpless child.

Members of the welfare board said they could not take colored children into the Guardian home, because "it is overcrowded."

"It would appear more humane if Negro children were included in the overcrowding," Mrs. Ward maintains.

"When I accepted position on the board I understand it would work for the benefit of the people of the community who needed the services of the welfare department without regard to race or creed.
I resigned when I discovered the board believed otherwise," Mrs.
Ward said.

The color prejudice of the board manifests itself in other ways.
There are approximately a dozen colored members of its working personnel. All are college graduates and have the high qualifications necessary for appointment.

Many have served for a number of years, efficiently and satisfactorily. Nevertheless none has ever been promoted to supervisor, although white workers with less qualifications and periods of service have been advanced rapidly, despite the fact the department is supposed to operate on the merit system.

Efforts by public-spirited citizens of both races to win the approval of the recent legislature for a complete overhauling of the Marion County Welfare department proved futile, but that effort will be renewed at a special session of the Assembly expected to be held within the next three months.

BISHOPS' RULE

board of trustees to control the college of liberal arts and the state-supported school of education, and recommended that the composition of the board be changed by law to allow more representation to citizens of Ohio. The report of the committee called conditions at the institution "unhealthy." Payne Theological Seminary was excluded from the report.

If the school makes the changes advised by the committee before October 1, it will have a chance to regain its rating. The probe disclosed that President Charles Wesley has no control over the dean of the school of religion and the treasurer, that one member of the self-perpetuating board, the Rev. Charles W. Stewart, is on the payroll of the school of religion, and that $105 monthly is paid to Bishop R. C. Ransom, chairman of the board, for "entertainment." Although another member of the board appeared to receive regular compensation, there was no record of it in the schedule.

The committee of investigation, one member of which was John W. Davis, president of West Virginia State College, felt that the three-year term for board members was too short, especially in view of the fact that the terms do not overlap, that there was not enough occupational diversity among the board members, and that the president of the university lacked sufficient clear-cut authority.

"The nine-member board of the school of education was composed of six ministers, a lawyer, an insurance man and a housewife. The committee was fearful that the preponderance of ministers would result in the same curbs being placed upon the authority of the president as was true in the case of the college of liberal arts."

Investigations of the committee were hampered by the presence of relatives and close friends of board members on the university payroll.
President Wesley expressed his regrets over the loss of status of the university and the effect that the move will have upon students who wish to pursue graduate study in accredited institutions.

Archie Taylor; a son, Jack Taylor;
two daughters, Mrs. Helen Ann Perkins and Mrs. Margaret E. Andrews, Danville, Ky.; a grandson, Jack Taylor Jr. and other relatives.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

An outstanding social triumph over the week-end was the annual Lenten tea sponsored by St. Monica's guild of St. Philip's Episcopal church. The tea was held in the Walker Casino with over 500 guests. As a refreshing relief from the endless monotony of cookies, hors d'oeuvres of chicken pate and cheese canapés were served. A special feature was an unusual Russian tea. Mrs. HARLAND DODSON, general chairman of the tea, who can take credit for the Russian tea recipe, and Mrs. ANNETTA LAWSON, president of the guild, poured at the lace-covered table. At each end of the table large crystal bowls of tea were placed on crystal platters trimmed with white narcissi arranged in a display of greenery. Six silver plates held the hors d'oeuvres and canapés. I can't help wishing out loud that more groups would serve canapés instead of cookies, as personally I hate cookies!

Mesdames BERNICE PAIGE, ANNETTA LAWSON, and GRACE BRYANT may take the honors for the program, which included the Lucetta Love ensemble, LORENZO OWENS, SUE EVELYN THOMPSON, Mrs. ADA THOMPSON, and WARREN ELZY. Mrs. LUCRETIA L. LOVE did accompanying. Responsible for keeping the service smooth were Mesdames SUE ARTIS, MARY AUTER, and MARTHA MARTIN and Miss ODESSA SINGLETON. Mesdames JOSEPHINE MOTEN, Aletha DuValle, LAURA GRANT, and OZELLA HALL handled decorations. The finance committee included Mesdames EFFIE LEMONDE (who, by the way, has been reporting the largest amount of money for the past nine or ten years, much to the envy of the other workers), LILLIAN COURTNEY, and ADA MOREY. Mesdames HATTIE GARDNER, LILLIAN LEMON, NAOMI MOORE, and FRANCES STEWART were on the publicity committee. I hope we can have more teas that work out as smoothly and satisfactorily as this... especially concerning the refreshments!

Mrs. JESSIE JACOBS entertained with a dancing party for teenagers Saturday night honoring her niece, Miss ELIZABETH SMITH, student at West Virginia state college. Miss Smith was house guest of her uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. PLUMMER D. JACOBS, who also entertained as guest CALVIN "NICK" TAYLOR, and her student at West Virginia state. Wild cherry trappé punch, sandwiches, and cookies were served at the party. JOHN JACOBS, son of Atty. and Mrs. CARY D. JACOBS, gave each guest an Easter egg as favors. Mrs. ELSA JACKSON made the large special basket from which Johnny passed the eggs. The Misses LOIS JEANNE BAIRD and IZONA THOMAS assisted as hostesses.

The ladies' auxiliary of the El Amigo club met in the club home Tuesday evening, and new officers were installed. They are Mesdames RUBY WOODSON, president; LUCILLE CARTER, vice-president; and LUCILLE SAWYER, secretary; and Miss BETTY HERRING, treasurer. A box lunch supper was served after a short business meeting.

While we're on the club front, The Dames met with Mrs. JOHN A. PATTON last Friday. Prizes were won by Mesdames MAYME BATTIES, W. L. G. KING, and F. E. DeFRANTZ Sr. DAVE CLARK was host to the Wyleaway bridge club Saturday. Prize winners were MAURICE E. NEISLER, JOHN METZGER, and ERNEST KIRK. CARY D. JACOBS entertained the Richard Allen guild of Allen Chapel A.M.E. church Monday night. Husbands and wives had a pitch-in luncheon. Mrs. EDITH CHOWNING had charge of the program. Mrs. GEORGIA STEWART is president of the guild. And now for personalities. Mr. and Mrs. ERNEST RYAN spent Palm Sunday in Louisville as the guests of his aunt. Mrs. HELEN A. HALL, visit to her parents and other relatives in Terre Haute last week.

Mrs. ROSE BAUGHMAN and daughter, CLARA, are visiting in Washington, Philadelphia, and New York. Mrs. ANNETTA LAWSON has flown to Washington, D. C., to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. MYRTLE DABNEY, who will leave soon for Germany to join her husband, Major WALTER H. DABNEY.

Dr. and Mrs. FREDERICK H. EVANS and son, FREDERICK III, plan to visit Dr. Evans' mother, Mrs. GRACE WILSON EVANS, in Terre Haute Sunday. Mrs. G. W. Evans, by the way, has just returned from a conference at Tuskegee. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. G. KING are visiting their son, WILLIAM, at West Virginia state college. Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT LANDRUM and baby, CAROL PATRICIA, Chicago, will spend Easter week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. LAWRENCE A. LEWIS. Mr. and Mrs. FAYBURN E. DeFRANTZ Sr., will leave Saturday for Washington. Mrs. DeFRANTZ will be guest of Mrs. MORDECAI JOHNSON, while Mr. DeFRANTZ will attend a meeting of the board of trustees of Howard university. They will stop off in New York before returning home.

Speaking of the DeFRANTZs reminds me... The 1942 graduating class of CAHS will have a reunion Sunday, April 13 in the YMCA. ROBERT D. DeFRANTZ happens to be in that class, along with several others, including your dear writer. And mentioning schools further reminds me... FENTON S. McKELLER, son of Mr. and Mrs. SAMUEL E. McKELLER, has completed requirements for a bachelor of arts degree in sociology at Indiana university. He served in the army for four years, you may remember.

Dramatic Group Plans Attraction

The community players, a group of artists under the aegis of Mary Ward Roberts, will present "A Spectrum of Dramatic Arts" Tuesday, April 15, at 8 in the Northwestern community center.

Ancient Greece serves as the setting for the opening scene, which will be done in pantomime. Action will then shift thru the centuries into modern times, with the denouement coming in the time of Bacchus and Ariadne, legendary figures of Greek mythology.

Pantomime, dialogue, magic, singing, dancing, and all forms of the dramatic arts are woven into a skein which will unravel before the spectators. Tickets will be available at leading business places for the evening of cultural pleasure interspersed with moments of buffoonery.

TEACHERS TO BE HOSTS

Teachers of the Cosmopolitan annex composed of Mrs. Bertha Howard, Scott Eberhardt, and Marion Venters, will be host to the Cosmopolitan Parents' council on Monday at 7 p. m. Roscoe Pollin, vice-president of the National Association of Negro Musicians, will be guest speaker.

The Poco-a-Poco club held its annual Easter egg hunt Saturday morning. Donald Earl Howard III won the prize. The children gave a spring program, with several parents present. Maceola Bransford was hostess.

TICKET CHAIRMAN: Miss Mary Wilson is chairman of the ticket sales committee of the Carlioca Girl's club. The club is sponsoring an all-expense plane trip to the Kentucky Derby. (ADV.)

American Legion Auxiliary To Have Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of YMCA American Legion Unit 107 will be held Friday night in the Federation of Associated Clubs home. Hostess will be Mesdames Teresa Sanders, Matilda Hayes, Alberta Armstrong, Helen Hall, Maude Connolly, and Vera Street.

Unit 107 has received not only the national citation, but also an award from the eleventh district membership chairman for being one of four of the 33 units in the district which reached its 1947 membership goal by Dec. 28.

Last Sunday Mrs. Clarissa Covington, music chairman of the auxiliary, was in charge of music for the morning chapel service at the Cold Springs veterans hospital. Miss Iris Tanner sang three numbers, and Mrs. Covington led community singing, assisted by Miss Tanner and Floyd Covington.

Fr. Chester Minton, chaplain at the hospital, praised at endance of the patients. Mrs. Madeline Miller, community service chairman, and Mrs. Mary Battles, president of the auxiliary, also attended the Palm Sunday services.

Easter Sunday morning Mrs. Elizabeth Green, boys' school chairman, will sponsor the program for the Plainfield boys' school. The girls concert club of Crispus Attucks high school, directed by Mrs. Marion Burch, will sing, and Andrae Amor, pianist, will play.

CAHS Arco-Band Parents Plan Recital For April 18

The Orchestra-Band Parents club of Crispus Attucks high school will present the orchestra and band of the school in a concert Friday evening, April 18, at 8:15 in the high school auditorium.

The club was organized in December, 1940 by parents of students in the two groups, with LaVerne Newsome, director of the orchestra, as sponsor. Purpose of the organization is to raise funds with which to purchase instruments for the orchestra and band.

Since the school board does not furnish all instruments, on instrument often has to serve three or four people. All parents cannot buy the expensive instruments needed.

The club is now in its seventh year. Each year funds are raised through a joint recital. The organization has purchased an oboe, two trombones, one contra-bass, a violin, a cello, a melophone, three violins, a flute, several mouth-pieces, cases, and other necessities. Still more are needed, as the band and orchestra are growing.

The orchestra and band will compete in selling tickets. Parents are also selling tickets, which can be purchased from any member of the orchestra or band or any parent.

Mrs. Georgia Stewart is president of the club. LaVerne E. Newsome is director of the orchestra. Russell Brown, director of the band, and Norman L. Merrifield, head of the music department.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

MRS. MARGARET RAPE SHACKELFORD is this week's choice as "Woman in the News". Known particularly for outstanding church work, Mrs. Shackelford is member of Bethel A.M.E. church. She is president of the Daughters of Allen, church affiliate, and is treasurer of another church group, the Bulletin club, in addition to being a member of still another church organization, the Loyal Legion.

Possibly her most outstanding single project was the sponsoring of the Peacetime Charity club about six or seven years ago. The group, of which she has been president since its organization, has made many generous donations to worthy causes, and also has a permanent scholarship fund, which helps deserving students to further their education.

Mrs. Shackelford has been largely responsible for the education and training of Rev. Cecil Duke, former resident, who is now pastor of Grant Memorial A.M.E. church in Chicago, after graduating from Wilberforce university last year.

During the recent Community Fund drive Mrs. Shackelford reported more money than any individual in her district. Her efforts were rewarded with a gold medal during ceremonies in the Claypool hotel.

Active in YWCA work, she is currently general chairman of a presentation of the YWCA's cantata "The House of the Future" at the YWCA's "Evening in Paris" fashion show to be held in the YWCA Sunday, April 27, at 4 as part of the Round the World National YWCA Reconstruction program, designed to aid war-torn countries.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Last week-end was a great one, due chiefly to the spring conference. Almost everyone was there and had a great time. Sorry for those of you who didn't attend, because you really missed a great deal. P. S.: We want to thank all you kids who send us letters. We're sorry that we don't have space to print all of them. By the way, we don't print any which are unsigned, so please sign them properly.

I guess all you bobby soxers know that Bill Garrett, E. Johnson, and Marshall Murray were guests of the lovely Mary Linsey. Oh y s! Douglass Hadley escorted her to the dance. Johnnie Landrum and Jesse Carter were well taken care of over the week-end by two lovely chicks from Virginia state. Edwina Bell was having a nice time at the cent r Friday night. Looked most fine, too.

I guess everyone knows Donald "Shadrack" Esters? Well, he says for all his soxers to be patient until he gets out of the hospital in California. Bettie Lowery looked mighty sweet at the YW Saturday night, but she had to leave early. Norris Williams and K. Browne were having a lovely time in the cozy dark corner at the dance Saturday night. I heard that Thomas Hamilton is all alone now. That's a good chance for several girls who didn't want a certain girl to go with him. It seems that James Wilson has found a new flame. Her name is Mary Jo Cochran. What has happened to Wallace Ellis and Godie Hayes? Is someone knowing in on him? Does Leon Smith really like Joanne Whitlock, or are they just playing? What is the deal between Aubrey Owens and P. Shaw? Is it love? Paul Blair asked Edmonia Smith when to the military ball with him, but she refused. Could it be because of Rickie? Mable Holt had a breakfast party Sunday morning, but some of the guys from out-of-town as well as some locals were refused admittance. It turned out to be a drag any way, and in the end every one turned up at the fine breakfast party Celestine's Yvonne gave. Even Mable herself and Charlotte Milton, who served as "bouncer" at her party, turned up at Celestine's. James Cummings had an impromptu party Sunday after the conference. Armand Jackson and John Stewart didn't show up, though. I overheard them discussing a little deal which was going on at Rosemary Wilson's house.

I won't mention any names, but Sunday three "upper-crust" chicks were seen trying to persuade a fellow to buy some cigarettes for them. Were they ashamed, or were they afraid the cashier might know their parents? Did you watch Marian Graves at the conference? She seemed to have been caught in the clutches of Dick Evans, from Muncie. I guess she knew that Dick was playing Mary Richardson, too. Mary seemed to have forgotten that Albert King existed during the conference. I hear that "Snooper" Rhodes threatened to kill her home Saturday night. I guess that's the only reason he walked her home, because he was playing a couple of out-of-town chicks Sunday.

Lillian Pope seemed pretty well taken care of by Buddy Bailey of Newcastle. Every where you turned you saw Lucian Birmingham sonning some chick (out-of-town, of course). He stuck to just one all day Sunday, though. I guess Orville Cole and Myrtle Johnson took the long way home Friday night. It was after 2 when they pulled in. Joan Edelen was holding onto William Mills awfully tight Saturday. Was she afraid he was going to run off? I saw Cleo Turner and Carl Tate sneaking up the "mid" with two chicks Sunday. Who were they, fellows? Earl Roberts had lots of troubles over the week-end — speaking of two Fort Wayne chicks and one from Springfield. The Springfield chick proved to be the best in the end. Theodore Greer left church with Marian Graves Sunday, but he ran into Dick Evans and turned her over to him. What are you running, Greer, and escort service? Lucille Holloway played the corners at the formal Saturday night with some guy from Fort Wayne. Orville Williams looked on with a long face. Barbara Alexander seems to have become attached to Howard League.

John Lane had better keep an eye on Teenie. She's making her debut this season. All the boys seem to be going for the chick in a big way. I wonder what's happened to Jackie, Bluestein and Anderson Grigley? They tell me she is crazy over him. Leola "Red" Westbrook seems to enjoy herself so much at lunch the fifth period. I wonder if it's the candy she likes so well? Who is this pretty little Tina who's taking Ocean's Westbrooks to the military ball? I wonder why Leola Westbrook has to be so bashful with William Plack the same way. She will never make the military ball that way. He's too bashful to ask her. What's the deal between Howard Frazier and Jerry S? J. well Pope and Fannie Jefferson are still being seen together after four years at it. I wonder why "Tootie" put Sam Davis down. Was it because she found out that she liked to cook for someone else at Mr. G's house? Why does Joan Edelen rush to Lockfield so much. She was also out at G. Johnson's house Saturday. If anyone wants any junk moved, try hiring the great "Tugzie" Loafers such as "Pig" Field, Harold Jones, and Tom Hamilton. James Cummings has been getting faked by quite a few chicks lately. Susie Brown turned him down after promising to take him to the military ball, and he almost cried. He keeps begging Annie Moore to go back with him, but she says "No". Next he called up a little chick out north, and she hung up on him, but he keeps calling Juanita M. and asking her when is he going to get a chance? Why is there a his smile on Rosecoe Carney's face lately? Is it because A. Jones is coming home for two weeks? By the way, kids, let's not forget the variety show being given by the Ivyettes in the auditorium April 11 at 8. You haven't? Well, I'll see you there.

Miss Marie Wells, 428 Broad st., Dover, O., was in town to attend funeral services of Mrs. Belle Taylor, which were held Monday in Mt. Olive Baptist church.

THE PASTOR OF JONES TABERNACLE SPEAKS

Theme: "The Habit of Going to Church Every Sunday as an Act of Worship to God."
The method of the Church is to meet together frequently in the Name of Christ to honor Him and learn of Him. This is a wise and efficient way of propagating an idea. If the people in any community who are interested in any particular idea will meet together frequently in the interest of that idea, in due time that idea will become a part of the community life.

So, to perpetuate Christ's work God did not depend upon the Bible alone. He founded an organization He chose to call His Church, whose business is to call the people's attention to the story contained in the Bible about the Christ. Henry H. Halley says the word Church means "congregation," "those who our relation to it."
Christ founded the Church. Christ gave us Sunday. The Church exists to propagate Christ's influence. Sunday exists to help the Church function. The world has recognized it by making this day a day of cessation from the ordinary activities of life so that we might worship en masse the only true God, and understand the secret of His continued creation and our relation to it.

Dillard Styled Best High Hurler in Game

CHICAGO (ANP)—If there were any doubts about the championship calibre of Baldwin-Wallace's ace hurler, Harrison Dillard, they were thrown to the winds here Saturday night at the Chicago Stadium before a crowd of 17,632 excited fans, as the sensational sprinter flashed over the hurdles in three contests to tie the world marks in each case. Dillard cleared the three, four, and five hurdles in the 40, 50 and 60-yard races in :05. :06.1, and :07.2 seconds, respectively, in the 11th Chicago meet.

Elmore Harris, of Long Branch, N. J., led the field in the 600-yard run (1:11.7). Bill Mathis, unattached, took the number one spot in the 50-yard dash (:05.2), and Taylor of Western Michigan jumped 6 feet 5 inches for top honors in the high jump. In the four-mile relay, the fast footwork of Walker and McKenley helped place Illinois out in front.

Other athletes turning in excellent performances were Albritton, Dayton, O., who tied for second place in the high jump; Ewell, unattached, who was third in the 50-yard dash; Taylor, who, close on the heels of Dillard, placed second in the 50-yard and 60-yard hurdles; Dugger, of Dayton, O., was fourth in the 40-yard and 50-yard hurdles and third in the 60-yard hurdles.

JOHN WILSON NAMED FOR ALL-INDIANA TEAM

Johnny Wilson, record-breaking freshman basketball star of Anderson College, was named this week to the All-Indiana Intercollegiate Conference team, selected by 20 coaches.

Wilson was placed at forward to make room for 6-foot-9-inch Jim Springer of Canterbury at center. Others chosen were Earl Gardner, DePauw, forward; Charlie Maas, Butler, and Bill Walton, DePauw, guards.

ROOSEVELT HI WINS GARY INDOOR MEET
GARY—Roosevelt High School's track and field performers wrote their names high in state ranks last week by capturing the Gary indoor meet, held at Chicago University fieldhouse.

The Roosevelt team served notice that they will bid for the state title in May, by scoring 59½ points to 35 for second-place Wallace. Froebel was third with 26 points.

Attitude of Dodger Players Figures in Start by Jackie

HAVANA (ANP)—The only thing keeping Jackie Robinson from lining himself with the major league Brooklyn Dodgers is the attitude of the players themselves, according to the players here last week. The players know it, everybody knows it, including Jackie.

The Montreal Royals' star first sacker had his bit to say about it last Monday during a brief timeout from spring training practice. "If the Dodgers don't want me, there would be no point in my forcing myself on them. I am in the Dodgers organization and naturally I want to see them win. I wouldn't want to feel that I was doing anything that would keep them from winning," he said.

"I got along fine in Montreal. I made friends there. The team, I am sure, did not suffer by my presence. We won the pennant by as big a margin as we pleased and went on to win the little world series."

"That couldn't have happened if Montreal's morale was not as high as it should be," he declared.

"No sir, morale is mighty important." Admittedly his interest in joining the mother club is economic and purely selfish, just all other ball players. The minimum salary on the Dodgers team is $5,000 "which is more than I'm getting now." It is believed that he is signed to a contract calling for $4,000.

"I won't feel too badly if I don't make it," Jackie said with a "devil-may-care" attitude. "That's what I say to myself when I go out there and play these exhibitions. I'm not under any pressure. Maybe it will be difficult in Brooklyn whom we play our last two exhibitions with the Dodgers. Not that big crowds have any effect on my playing. But if I felt that everything concerned with making the big leagues hinder on those games, I'd be a little tighter, I suppose."

He said a conference with Branch Rickey in Panama earlier did not have any bearing on a possible promotion. He was on a switch from first to second base, a position which he views as not being particularly difficult. The second-hand first base mitt which Robinson has been wearing was purchased from Dan Comerford, Dodgers' club house custodian, by the Montreal Royals' business manager, M. I. Jones.

Robinson came to Havana weight 210 pounds. He's now down to the playing weight of 190. Should the time appear right for his joining the Dodgers team, he will take his place in the lineup sometime between April 10-15. Otherwise, the Royals will have him for another year.

WALCOTT CHALLENGES JOE LOUIS TO FIGHT

PATERSON, N. J. (NNPA)—A formal challenge of Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis' title has been filed by the managers of Jerry J. Walcott, Abe J. Greene, president of the National Boxing Association, said last Thursday.

Clemmons Wins Ind. AAU Heavyweight Boxing Tourney

Willie Clemmons, Indianapolis Police Department heavyweight, finished off Buck Raven of Gary in two minutes and 53 seconds of the first round to win the state AAU title in the tournament held last week at the Armory.

Clemmons dropped Raven for a five and then a six count, and the Gary battler was on the ropes when the referee ended the proceedings.

Indianapolis fighters won all eight divisions of the tourney. Besides Clemmons, the victors were: Light Heavyweight — Bill Roberts, Indianapolis Fire Department; Middleweight — Harry Dunn, Police Department; Welterweight — Julius Griffith, Police Department; Lightweight — Harold Cone, Fire Department; Featherweight — Russ McKinney, Fire Department; Bantamweight — Chuck McGow, Fire Department; Flyweight — Fred Rice, Fire Department.

The Indianapolis Fire Department won the team championship, with the Police Department runners-up. The Indiana champions will compete in the National AAU tourney at Boston on April 7, 8 and 9. "Tiny" Bland will serve as their coach.

GARY ATHLETE WINS HONORS AT UCLA

LOS ANGELES — Davage Minor, UCLA hardwood star who hails from Gary, Ind., was named Southern California "athlete of the month" by the Helms Athletic Foundation here recently. Minor, who played high school basketball with Gary Froebel, had previously been chosen at guard for the all-Pacific Coast team. He received 18 out of a possible 20 points in the voting by coaches.

ANDERSON — Jumpin' Johnny Wilson, star freshman center of Anderson college, finished 8th in United States among individual scorers during the basketball season just ended, it was revealed last week.

Wilson was handicapped by playing a shorter schedule than most of the contenders. Cliff McNeely of Texas Wesleyan, national champion, scored 725 points in 33 games. Wilson scored 515 points in 25 games.

'CANDY' JIM'S GIANTS START SPRING TRAINING IN MISSISSIPPI

By JAMES RUNDLES
For the NNPA News Service

JACKSON, Miss. — The Chicago American Giants opened a scheduled two-week training period here last Wednesday afternoon, under the watchful eye of the veteran Candy Jim Taylor, manager of the squad.

Under perfect weather conditions, about 22 players were on hand for the morning and afternoon training sessions.

Particularly impressive in the first afternoon drills was short stop Clyde McNeal of San Antonio, Tex. Though only a youngster of eighteen, McNeal, a veteran of three seasons with the Giants, showed remarkable form and a good throwing arm in infield play.

A scout of the Giants signed McNeal three years ago after watching him in action on a high school squad in San Antonio.

Also on the roster of the Giants, and showing flashing form in their south camp is James McCune, outfielder and long time "Clean-up" man in the lineup. McCune formerly pitched and played outfield with the University of Illinois.

Others who made the chances of the Giants look more than good in the opening workouts was Gentry Jessup, rated by many as the best pitcher in the American league.

After starring on his hometown team at Norfolk, Virginia, Jessup joined the Giants in 1941. During the winter Jessup pitched for the Almendares, an all-Cuban team. He later led a group of Negro All-Stars to a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees in Venezuela.

Walter McCoy and Clarence Locke, hurlers of three seasons with the Giants; Bernel Longest, star second baseman, former college star at Piney Woods, Mississippi; James Tolbert, catcher from Birmingham, and Samuel Hill, outfielder, who hails from the same city are others who are expected to bolster the Giant attack.

New faces in the lineup included Earl Bumpus, southpaw hurler of two seasons with the Birmingham Black Barons; Thomas Turner, first baseman from Glendale, Ohio; John Ritchey, catcher, San Diego, California; Jacob Robinson, and Jimmy Newberry, outfielders of Chicago; Fred Anthony, Dallas, and Harry Rhodes, New Orleans, outfielders.

Lockefield eliminated Hill's Center and Northwestern before coming to the finals. The Barons won the 1946 season, defeating the Barons 47 to 23. This is the third year the Lockefield five has won the title, winning in 1945 and 1946. Lockefield won two trophies and the Barons won one as the runner-up team.

HAMMOND — The "gentleman's agreement" which bars Negro basketball players from the Big Nine colleges was strongly challenged last week by John Whitaker, sports editor of the daily Hammond Times.

In an open letter to K. L. "Tug" Wilson, Big Nine Conference commissioner, Whitaker cited the record and sportsmanship of Negro boys playing on the high school teams of Shelbyville, Anderson, Fort Wayne Central and other schools.

The open letter, published in Whitaker's column "Speculating in Sports," follows:

"Dear Mr. Wilson: I attended the Indiana state basketball finals Saturday in Butler Fieldhouse and saw Shelbyville's great team win the state title. The outstanding stars for Shelbyville were Bill Garrett, Emerson Johnson and Marshall Murray, three Negro boys. East Chicago Washington, which lost to Shelbyville in the afternoon, used two colored boys, Andy Spencer and Ben Dix, and Marion, also eliminated in the afternoon, played a colored boy named Don Pettiford.

"Maybe you read the Chicago papers where Paris won the Illinois championship. The Paris center, Owens, is a Negro boy.

"The Anderson team which won the Indiana championship last year featured three Negroes, including the fabulous Johnny Wilson. Fort Wayne Central, defeated by Anderson, also used three colored players.

Garrett Called Best
"Virtually every coach who was in Indianapolis Saturday was agreed on two things: (1) that Bill Garrett, of Shelbyville, was the classiest individual player ever to appear on an Indiana high school floor; (2) that the attitude and conduct of the Negro contenders were above reproach at all times.

"The point is, Mr. Wilson, we keep hearing that the Big Nine Conference has an 'unwritten agreement' not to use Negroes in basketball. If so, WHY?"

"If the biggest, braggingst athletic conference in the middle of the greatest country in the world can use Negroes like Buddy Young, Ike Owen, Dallas Ward, Duke Slater, George Tallafiero and the like to draw $200,000 crowds for football, Negroes like Jesse Owens and Eddie Tolan to win Olympic crowns, why can't it use them in basketball?"

Lockefield Team Wins "Y" Junior Basketball Meet

By JAMES CUMMINGS
The Lockefield team won the final game and the YMCA Junior basketball tournament last Wednesday evening, defeating the Barons 47 to 23. This is the third year the Lockefield five has won the title, winning in 1945 and 1946. Lockefield won two trophies and the Barons won one as the runner-up team.

Lockefield eliminated Hill's Center and Northwestern before coming to the finals. The Barons won the 1946 season, defeating the Barons 47 to 23. This is the third year the Lockefield five has won the title, winning in 1945 and 1946. Lockefield won two trophies and the Barons won one as the runner-up team.

The Lockefield squad consists of Carl Alexander, center; Jimmy Miller, guard; Frank Martin, guard; Charles Miller, forward and Alton Hard, forward. Other members include Randall Howard, John Tringle, Robert Kenny, Eugene Brade, William Hawkins and Ronald Crowe.

Cleo Turner did a fine job of coaching the boys, even though he is a teen-ager and member of one of the clubs. Jimmy Miller won a trophy for good sportsmanship. Members of the All-Tournament team received small bronze basketballs. This selection was as follows: Carl Alexander, center; John Buckner, forward; Carl Tate, forward; Jimmy Miller, guard, and Frank Martin, guard.

FOR THE PEOPLE:

There is no happy medium between the two extremes for any crime-perpetrator in the state by any individual. He is either guilty or not guilty. Almost a year ago I publicly stated that I was going to investigate the case of Charles Degraphenreed who is serving a life sentence in Indiana State Prison at Michigan City for the murder of a florist during the commission of a robbery. The public may forget that I made that promise but I haven't. I stated then that it would require some time for me to look through all the police files and court records of the case before I could take any positive action. This has finally been done and now I feel that there are enough mitigating circumstances to warrant a new trial for Degraphenreed. I have taken all of the facts I have and all of the material I could locate to the offices of Attorney Henry R. Wilson Jr. He is looking them over. He has not stated that he will take the case but I feel that he will. I know that it will be a sacrifice with little or no monetary gain for Wilson's legal skill but I have asked him as a public service to do this. Within a few days I will know what his action will be. It means then that I will have to raise money to pay some of the bills but I feel that if we keep uncovering evidence to show Degraphenreed innocent that it will be worth the money I will spend. I do not know whether Degraphenreed is guilty or not but wherever there is the slightest doubt as to a man's guilt he should be turned loose or if convicted, at least granted a new trial. In my mind there is an element of doubt as to Degraphenreed's guilt.

Have you registered yet? You must register before you can vote!!

Charles Duncan, doorman at the 440 Club, used to have a 9-piece band of his own. I don't know about it but if he had WALLY WILSON of the 440, to sing Summertime, and Harold Smith to sing Temptation and Millard Lee to play his symphonic rendition of Boogie Woogie he would have had a pretty good aggregation. They should all get together sometime for a jam session and invite the press... that is for constructive points.

Mrs. Nina Kauffman, the be-jeweled and glamorous Taverness, is giving her belated birthday party in her multi-colored glass-enameled Ritz Cafe, any day next week I choose. I don't know what day it will be and who my half-dozen guests will be, but one request is in order now; that Forrest Wally Wilson sing Summertime and Purnell Coleman, the A-1 pianist, backgroud for him. The surprise marriage of the month is the East-meet West tie-up between DeWitt Morris, the Harris Hotel cook, and Helen Thompson, the ex-Hawaii Hotel mgr. They have been champagne and wine for days since last Friday. Their hosts have been Arathar Edelen and Percy (The Jackie P.) Saunders. Arathar furnished the "lush" and Jackie an Orchid for Mrs. Morris. You cannot vote by affidavit this time. You must register to vote. If there ever is a best dressed girl contest, the winner will be lucky if she can out-do the pattern that was set a few years ago by dusky Helen Hubbard. She had almost everything, size, looks, and knew what to wear and when. But she dropped out of sight all at once. I know a lot of fellows who wish she would drop back in sight (smiles).

So few people read. And of those who do read so few of them understand what they read. A few weeks ago I stated that Emmett Brown, of the Brown Studio, was "out of the picture." Some people thought I meant he would not take their picture. I meant simply that he was divorcing his wife, Idella; you know, the cute little girl who used to sing or maybe still does. Brown is still in the picture business, very much so. Right now he is concentrating on photographing primary candidates for the election, both Republican and Democrats. The Anderson Garden has a dance floor now. Fast work, too.

You must register before you can vote! You cannot vote by affidavit, remember? John Tandy and Amos Hartwell, both of the Rainbow, are serving me Coco-Cola with lemon juice these days.

You owe it to yourself and your community to register and vote, now.

Sheriff Albert Magenheimer has tried to keep to his promises. He has cut down the number of state police working in Marion County by doing the work with deputies. He has almost tripled the number of runs for his men but managed to get their working hours cut from 12 to 8 hours with no decrease in pay. He has more Negro deputies on full pay than there ever has been in my memory. But the most far-reaching of all of his measures was his attempt to install the latest hygienic equipment in the jail. He has painted his emergency vehicles white so that they will serve as a harassing agent against traffic violators. He has made Recorder photographer, Thomas Ervin, one of his deputized press agents. Ervin can be called on at anytime to make "shots" of murder scenes and accidents to be used in courts. Most reporters have badges and pistols but the sheriff's badge is by far the most glamorous. Some of the snoopers have their badges gold-plated. Not me...!

ELMIRA, N. Y. — The Gamma Delta Lambda Sigma Sorority of this city has engaged the popular Prairie View College Co-eds to play for their pre-Easter Ball to be held at the swank Mark Twain Hotel, Saturday May 5. This marks the first time that a colored band has ever played for this Sorority. The engagement was booked by Ferguson Brothers of Indianapolis, exclusive representative for America's No. 1 all-girl band.

Jay McShann and his "Confessin' the Blues" dance orchestra will swing out at Tomlinson Hall Sunday nite, April 6 in a gala pre-Easter swing session that is sure to draw a capacity crowd.

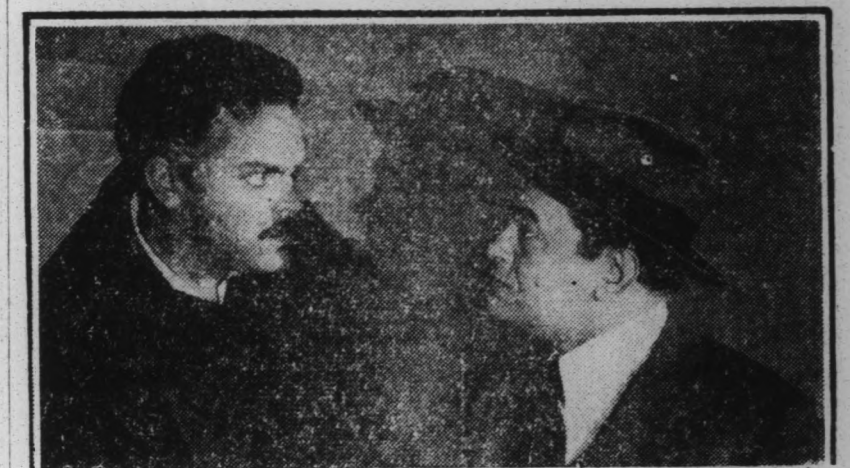

This aggregation of master musicians need no introduction to the Naptown dance public. The band that hails from St. Louis and became famous at the Savoy dance emporium in N. York City boasts of the current season will be on that has made them quite popular in this neck of the woods.

Judging from advance ticket sales, one of the largest crowds of the current season will be on hand to pay homage to America's "Idol of the Keyboard" — Jay McShann, and his great dance band.

Advance tickets are now on sale in your neighborhood at $1.40. Admission at the door is $1.60. For table reservations — call the Sunset Cafe.

COMING ATTRACTIONS: Coole Williams — April 13 h.
Lionel Hampton — April 21st.
Luis Russell — April 27th.

EDWARD G. ROBINSON and Orson Welles portray a pair in terrific antagonism in "The Stranger", which starts Sunday at Hill's Indiana.

Edw. G. Robinson At Indiana Sunday

Seldom has a rising motion picture career stirred keener popular interest than has that of young Richard Long, the sensational youngster who is seen in International's "The Stranger", co-starring Edward G. Robinson, Loretta Young and Orson Welles.

One reason for Richard's enormous popularity among picture fans is the evident sincerity of his work before the camera.

First appearing in "Tomorrow Is Forever" as a find by International, young Long is now cast as the brother of heroine Loretta Young, whom he tries to shield from a mysterious menace, and himself nearly falls a victim in a tragedy.

SPECIAL ART SHOW HELD IN FORT WAYNE

FORT WAYNE — The exhibition of outstanding Negro Americans, painted by a white and a Negro artist, has aroused such wide spread public response that it will remain at the Fort Wayne Art Museum for two more weeks, it is said here.

The portraits are the work of Mrs. Betsy Graves Reyneau, Michigan-born white artist, and Mrs. Laura Wheeler Waring, who was the first Negro woman to graduate from Oberlin College, Ohio.

Among Mrs. Reyneau's presentations are portraits of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, Dr. Charles R. Drew, pioneer in blood plasma; Dr. John A. Kenny, surgeon, first editor of the Journal of the AMA; Jane M. Bolin, justice of the Domestic Relations Court, New York City; William H. Hastie, governor of the Virgin Islands; Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University; Richmond Barthé, sculptor, and Paul Robeson as Othello.

Mrs. Waring's subjects include Marian Anderson, Harry T. Burleigh, composer and baritone, and James Weldon Johnson, poet and educator.

FORMER NIGHT CLUB OWNER CAUGHT IN RAID LAST WEEK

NEW YORK (ANP)—Caught in a raid Friday on a swank house of prostitution that included a "madam," night club dancers, an actor-model and others, was Richard "Dickie" Wells, 40, former owner-manager of Harlem's Dickie Wells restaurant.

Wells, a former club owner, who was arrested less than 30 hours before as a race track bookmaker, was caught in the raid by a dozen or more policemen and charged with living on the proceeds of prostitution.

The house was known as a hoity-toity place and among its clientele were said to be prominent lawyers, doctors and army colonels, as well as members of the United Nations diplomatic corps and banking firms, according to Asst. Dist. Atty. Paul Reilly.

A blonde arrested as she entered the house wore a $3,000 mink coat, and in one of the apartments a quantity of cocaine, two "toys" of opium and seven marijuana cigarettes were seized.

Madame La Mar Wilson, head of the house, said that her prices ranged from $50 to $200.

Wells, the only Negro caught in the group, listed himself as an actor, but this was denied by the Negro Actors guild, who said it had no record of him as an actor.

RAY McNABNEY, SR., Who Has Been With Power & Light for 35 Years, Keeps Your Electric Service from "Cutting a Limb"

Ray McNabney, Sr., loves trees, but he also knows what chafing bark and falling limbs can do to the wires that bring you Electricity. Last year he directed the trimming of nearly 32,000 trees at Company expense by private contractors. Ray McNabney's specialty is another of the many jobs done by nearly 1,400 employees who make Power & Light for you.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION THAT COSTS $79,000 A YEAR

Because of the training and equipment required, tree trimming is turned over to firms who specialize in that work—and Power & Light pays the bill. So long as trees grow, this work must be done to prevent interference with your Electric service.

PRINCIPALS IN PREMIERE: Following the world solo cantata, "The Song of Songs"—a work commissioned especially for the distinguished soprano, Ella-premiere performance in Boston of Lukas Foss' biblical belle Davis, by the League of Composers—Miss Davis receives the congratulations of Serge Koussevitzky (left), who conducted the performance and seven others by Miss Davis with the Boston Symphony Orchestra in the following nine days in New York, New Haven, Philadelphia, Northampton and Brooklyn. The composer looks approvingly on.

Dr. Koussevitzky's scheduling of so many performances of the Foss work by Miss Davis within one musical week, represents the first time in his long association with the Boston Symphony that the great conductor has attached such importance to a single work and a single soloist.—(ANP Phot. o.)

THE ABBE WALLACE SERVICE

Care of The Indianapolis Recorder, 518 Indiana Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind.

N. C.—I am not very happy with my present work and location. My sister writes that she would like to have me move to the city where she and mother are living. She wants me to become her partner in business and manage one of her shops. Mother says I might live with her. Do you think this would be a change for the better?

Ans.—Indeed I do. Your sister is making a lot of money but her responsibilities are too great. She knows you are qualified to assume part of her duties and she has confidence enough in your ability to want to make you her partner. This is a wonderful opportunity and you should take up her proposition.

S. N.—I am 26 years old, married and we have a two-year-old child. We have been married off and on for three years. She is living in one town with mother and I am in another town. When I go to see her she claims she loves me and I know I love her, but her mother doesn't seem to want us to live together. She tells me not to come around anymore if I don't want to get in trouble. Tell me what to do.

Ans.—Get busy and find an apartment, furnish it and go to your wife and ask her to come home to you. Your wife's mother is sore because you are making her daughter unhappy — she wants you to make a home for your wife and child or let them entirely alone. This is your last chance — you had better not let it slip by.

Z. Y. X.—I had a nice boy friend a couple of years ago but I didn't accept good treatment. I got long headed, being a young boysoxer. I didn't know what was all about. He still acts like he wants me and I feel the same about him. Tell me right away what to do.

Ans.—Be friendly with the fellow again. Since it was your fault that you broke up, you might take the initiative in re-opening the friendship. Do it subtly and without the boy friend being suspicious of your actions. You brushed him off once very coolly and he won't stand for any "jive".

"I received your kind letter and advice. It is wonderful for my troubled soul. This letter I am writing is leaving me a much improved young lady. My Lessons are wonderful. You have helped me so much in mind and spirit and I am hoping that I continue to grow strong. Thanks a million for everything—W. P."

E. J. E.—My problem is getting on my nerves. I am married, wife and I are doing fine for poor people. I love her and she loves me but she cannot stand to see me talking with another woman. Recently, I fell in love with another lady and she is in love with me. She is true blue. I have been going with her quite a bit and she always tells me she doesn't want my money, she only wants my friendship. Now she thinks she is going to become a mother on account of me being so dear to her. If she should, would I do wrong to help her with the child?

Ans.—If this is true, assume part of the responsibility for the upkeep of the child as you brought this hardship on. You cannot continue romancing with the woman as it will only lead to trouble. You have already played havoc and if you keep it up, it will bring a lot of grief on your wife, this woman and yourself as well. It's unfortunate that you did not take heed to your wife's suspicions... in the future when you feel the urge to pitch woo, you had better take your wife along with you.

O. C. O.—I love a certain guy and know he loves me. Nearly every week he gives me twenty-five or thirty dollars and he is always buying me nice presents. I want to marry this fellow. He has spoken about it several times but seems to think I am not settled. I am and I know I would make him a real wife. I think it would be best for us to marry and save our money, buy a car or a home instead of throwing it away like we do. If we don't marry, I plan to go to the city to live. What do you think?

Ans.—Get a job in the city as you plan for it will give the boy friend something to worry about and he will make up his mind in short order about marriage. He feels now that as long as he shares his earnings and buys you nice presents, you should be contented. You have the right idea about the whole matter — just don't be satisfied with anything less than marriage. Lead him to the altar or break away.

VA. LAWYER RUNS FOR LEGISLATURE
RICHMOND, Va. (ANP) — A city-wide civic campaign is in progress here to secure votes for Oliver W. Hill, Negro attorney, who recently announced his candidacy for the Virginia House of Delegates in the Democratic primary Aug. 5. Mr. Hill is the second Negro to run for the Virginia House of Delegates recently. The first to seek a seat in the house since reconstruction was the Rev. W. B. Ball, Baptist pastor, who made an unsuccessful run in 1945.
